

YED DRAWING COMPETITION

'Drawings' can be in pencil, pen, crayons or paint.

Drawings can be brought on the day or can be sent in advance. If sending them in advance, please scan and email them (secretary@amentsoc.org) or send them by post (to arrive at least a week before the event) to:

YED Drawing Competition, PO Box 8774, London SW7 5ZG

PRIZES

Three prizes will be awarded for the best drawings. These will be limited edition prints by the wildlife artist Cath Hodsman. The First Prize Winner will have 'first pick' of the prints.

Winners will also get a Bug Club bag.

The judges' decision on the day will be final.

WHAT THE JUDGES WILL BE LOOKING FOR

The judges will have the following in mind when judging drawings:

1) The age of each entrant will be taken into account.

2) Technical skill

This means, how well you have used your chosen materials (e.g. pens, pencils, crayons, paint).

3) Meaning

Does the subject have a personal meaning for the artist?

Is the artist trying to convey a message (for example, about an endangered species, or a lifecycle)?

4) Uniqueness

Does the drawing offer the viewer something original?

5) Beauty

Is the drawing or painting pleasing to look at?
