

Information for Exhibitors

AES Annual Exhibition

Saturday 26th September 2026, Kempton Park Racecourse

Staines Road East, Sunbury-On-Thames TW16 5AQ

We are excited to invite exhibitors of all ages to participate in the AES Annual Exhibition at Kempton Park Racecourse. You don't need to be an AES Member to exhibit.

Your exhibits — which may include entomological livestock, specimens, photographs, or creative work — are an integral part of the Annual Exhibition.

If you are an AES member, you are eligible for generous prizes for the best exhibits in each class, including the Bradford Award for adult entrants and the Ansorge Awards for junior members.

Exhibitor Details & Instructions

- Exhibitors can enter the exhibition hall from 10:30 am to set up their exhibits.
- The exhibition area is upstairs, in the Premier Suite.
- Marshals will be available to assist upon arrival. Enter the exhibition through the turnstiles or the vehicle gate from the main car park, say that you have an exhibit.
- The exhibition opens to the public at 11:00 am.
- Prizes for AES Members will be announced around 2:00 pm, and we encourage all participants to keep their exhibits in place until the exhibition ends, to allow everyone to enjoy them.

Fees and Entry Information

- There is no charge for exhibit space.
- Each exhibitor is eligible for free entry to the Exhibition (non-members need to prebook using this form).
- Junior members of the AES are encouraged to bring one accompanying adult, who will also receive free entry.
- Exhibition entry is free to Bug Club members, on proof of membership.

Please fill in the form to help us allocate space and arrange early entry. AES Members are also welcome to turn up with your exhibit on the day. We kindly ask all exhibitors to provide a short description and photographs of their exhibit for the AES Bulletin preferably by email to exhibition@amentsoc.org, or at reception on the day.

We look forward to seeing your exhibits and making this year's event a success!
